

Jouman Fattal

In 2015 Jouman Fattal graduated from the HKU University of the Arts. Since then she has developed into a versatile actress, director and writer.

She played the leading role in the tv series De Zuidas, for which she was nominated for a Golden Calf for Best Actress in 2018. Jouman also played (leading roles) in television series such as Project Orpheus, ANNE + and Zina, and in movies like Gelukzoekers, Meskina and Anne+, for which she was nominated for a Golden Calf Best Supporting Actress in 2022.

On stage, Jouman played in productions of theatre companies like de Toneelmakerij, Frascati Productions and Toneelgroep Maastricht, among others. Since 2020 she is as a theatre director for Toneelgroep Maastricht, directing her own plays. And she is the Dutch voice for the Harry Potter (nominated for Best Narrator of 2020 in the Storytel Awards) and the Lord of the Rings audiobooks for Storytel.

This season, Jouman will be seen on television in the tv show Anoniem, she'll direct her second play Breadcrumbs on stage and will star as lead in the new theatre production Cafe 749 from the leading musical theatre company Orkater.